

CAN WE RAISE UP A GENERATION OF EMPLOYED YOUTH?

THE PROBLEM

The lack of employment opportunities for young people can have devastating consequences for their long-term employment outcomes. In many countries there is an excess supply of students looking for an internship but low employer demand.

VIP@work
vocational internship placements

VIP@Work is a European incentive which helps VET students to gain relevant work experience through internships for a quicker and more efficient entry to the job market after their finished education.
